Chairman's Corner

A warm welcome to the autumn edition of the Staffordshire Knot.

Some good news is that the Consumer Price Index for September 2017 has been announced, recording inflation at 3%. Which means that Police Pensions will increase in April 2018 by that amount.

Well the summer was certainly not the heatwave that the weather forecasters promised.

Des and myself have been busy dealing with the routine matters that affect NARPO members but we have continued to field many queries and questions surrounding Staffordshire Police's reviews of Injury on Duty Pension Awards.

Following the arrival of the new Chief Constable to the Force, Gareth Morgan, who had previously been the DCC of the Avon and Somerset Constabulary, there was an expectation that he might suspend the IOD reviews as had recently happened in his previous force.

However on exchange of correspondence with him, it became apparent that he was going to continue the review process that Staffordshire Police had started.

(continued from page 3) As a follow on from this correspondence, Des and myself had a meeting with Gareth Morgan on Friday 25/8/2017. After introductions, we challenged him about his rationale for continuing with the IOD reviews. We had a frank exchange of views and he reiterated his stance recorded in a letter to me dated 7/7/2017.

The Chief Constable's letter and the summary of our meeting with him have been placed on the Staffordshire NARPO Website for members to read and digest.

Staffordshire NARPO and National NARPO will continue to monitor the progress of IOD reviews to check that they are being done fairly and correctly.

National NARPO Conference Scarborough Friday 8/9/2017

Des, myself and representatives from the Branch attended the NARPO Annual Conference at Scarborough.

The main debate concerned the introduction of the proposed new rules for NARPO. There were a few minor amendments placed before Conference. These were debated and votes taken and all the amendments were approved.

The main motion on the rules was placed before Conference and, with a vote of 90% in favour, the new rules were approved.

The Financial Controller Helen Morgan gave her update to Conference and reported that the NARPO funds were in a good state of health, with a yearly surplus and increase in the reserves that are held.

Steve Edward's the CEO of NARPO gave his yearly update, touching on the subjects of a revamp of the NARPO Website and an update of Super Sleuth, the NARPO database which holds member records.

The outgoing President, Ian Potter, also gave his yearly update, referring to the hard work that NARPO continues to do across the whole country. He also made mention of his desire to see One Force One Branch, citing Staffordshire NARPO as a good example of how this model can operate.

Conference heard from an inspirational speaker, James Ketchell, who was a young man who had come through adversity to row across the Atlantic Ocean single handedly and then gone on to climb mount Everest.

There was a panel discussion and question and answer session on Caring for the Future. This was obviously very topical due to the problems that are, and will be experiencing caring for an ageing population.

Following Conference a new President, Brian Burdus, was elected to the position for a period of two years, and also a new Vice President, Richard Critchley was elected for a two year period.

Meeting with PCC Matthew Ellis.

On the morning of Friday 20/10/2017 Des and I had one of our regular meetings with the Staffordshire PCC. We had a wide-ranging discussion with him which included the following topics

1. Falling Police Officer Numbers and austerity that is continuing to cut the Force budget. He has recently spoken out about the Governments lack of funding for the Police Service. He is aware that the glide path in respect of Police Officer numbers is moving towards 1550 by next year. He has concerns about this and is hoping to find some savings to increase frontline police numbers. Despite newspaper reports that other Forces may be cutting PCSO numbers, he does not see the need for this course of action in Staffordshire.

2. We touched upon the proposed amalgamation of back office functions between the Police and the Fire and Rescue Service. Despite opposition from some quarters he is hopeful that the Home Office may well sanction this to take place in Staffordshire. Savings made could be ploughed back into frontlines of both the Police and Fire Service.
3. We asked him about the ongoing reviews of injury on duty awards, he stated that he was sighted on the whole issue and supported the views of the new Chief Constable on the subject. He himself had been receiving correspondence from IOD persons who were expressing their concerns about the matter.
4. We also asked about the sale of the old H.Q. site at Baswich. He stated that it was still going ahead, but there had been another delay over a dispute about the provision of social housing on the site. A resolution has now been found but he was unable to provide us with the details.

From the Archive

In January 2017, a lady called Sheila Harris, the daughter of Enid Margaret Walton (pictured left, 1946) contacted Staffordshire Police stating that her mother had passed away in 2013.

Sheila Harris had retained some of her belongings, which included photographs and other memorabilia from the time when she had served in Staffordshire between 1946 and 1951. Sheila decided that it might be more appropriate to find a more permanent home for these items.

With this in mind she contacted Staffordshire Police who in turn contacted Des Lockwood and myself at NARPO to see if we would be interested in taking possession of these items.

We decided to take up the offer, the only problem being that the daughter lived in Truro in Cornwall and was reluctant to post them to us in case of loss in the post. It just so happened that a few months after this Des Lockwood was due to go on holiday to the Cornwall area. He therefore arranged to meet with Sheila Harris at her home address in Truro to retrieve the items.

The items consisted of a number of photographs of her training at Ryton-on-Dunsmore, HMI inspections at Stone Police Station, her original Police Training Student notebook and of course an early edition of Moriarty's Police Law.

The items provided a fascinating glimpse of her short career as one of the earliest police women in Staffordshire. Her collar number being 21.

Enid Walton had joined the force on 21/10/1946 and following her initial training was posted to Stone. It was apparent from a letter penned by her Superintendent W. Crook that she enjoyed the job, soon settled in at Stone and was very well thought of by her colleagues and the community.

Whilst stationed at Stone she was detailed to undertake plain clothes duty at a regular local dance at the Post Office Training School at Yarnfield, owing to the fact that a number of purses were being stolen. It was at one of these dances that she met her future husband who, although on a course at Yarnfield, actually resided in the Bristol area.

Her marriage and subsequent move to Bristol spelt the end of her police career, and she resigned on 26/11/1951, with an exemplary record endorsed by the Chief Constable Colonel G.W. Hearn.

Enid Walton was born on 31/7/1922 and died on 17/6/2013 aged 90 years, she obviously had fond memories of her time in Staffordshire, hence the retention for all these years of her police memorabilia.

In conjunction with her family I agreed that I would write a short article in memory of her passing, and would ensure that the photographs would be posted on the Staffordshire NARPO Website under the title "The Way We Were".

Burton-on-Trent & Uttoxeter Sub Branch

The excellent support of this Sub Branch throughout the year by members from Burton and Uttoxeter resulted in all meetings being well attended and the one coach trip being full as per usual. The final meeting on the 11th October at Marstons Club was full with 60 in attendance and apologies from other regular attenders. Early indications are that our Christmas lunch on the 13th December at the popular venue of Branston Golf & Country Club will also be excellent and could again exceed previous numbers, and as usual we welcome new faces for whom we include the attached menu. For those members unable to attend, especially our widows and widowers we wish you all a happy and healthy Christmas and New Year. Meeting dates for 2018 are:- 14th February, 11th April, 11th July and 10th October - all at Marston's Sports & Social Club, Shobnall Road, Burton.

Two coach trips will be organised in 2018, details to follow. Ralph Seville, Sub Branch Chairman - October, 2017.
